

National Symposium, Ethics and Values: Reconnecting Past with Present, November 9, 2017

Centre for Holistic Development (CHD), established by our Principal Sir, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, in the year 2016, for re-establishing the importance of ethics and values in society organized its first National level event. A National Symposium on the topic “Ethics and Values: Reconnecting Past with Present” was held on November 9, 2017 at India International Centre, New Delhi. The honourable Chief Guest was Sh. K.G. Suresh, Director General, Indian Institute of Mass Communication (IIMC), New Delhi. The keynote address was delivered by Sh. T. K. Sengupta, Director, MMTC Ltd. The other distinguished speakers from diverse fields were Prof. N. K. Kakkar, MATES; Sh. Rajeev Saxena, Mazars India; Prof J. K. Mitra, FMS, DU; Prof. Runa Sarkar, IIM Calcutta; Prof. Anil. K. Swain, Utkal University; Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, SLC; Prof. K. Ramakrishnan, Researcher; Prof. Minakshi, DU; Prof. Kavita Sharma, Dept. of Commerce, DSE; Sh. Vineet Ahuja, IRR (Fitch Group). This multidisciplinary Symposium turned out to be a big step towards developing our understanding of various facets of ethics and values and rewards of practicing the right values. It fulfilled its purpose of awakening people in today’s world of growing insularity and individualism. It was well appreciated by our distinguished speakers that this Symposium would serve as a brick in the foundational walls of ethics and values that are being re-laid at a critical juncture. The organizing team comprised Dr. Usha Kashyap (Director), Dr. Ruchika Ramakrishnan (Convenor), Ms. Niti Agrawal (Organising Secretary), Ms. Adithi, Ms. Poonam, Ms. Pooja, Ms. Swati, Ms. Sumanjeet, Ms. Neha, Ms. Shaista (Team Members) led by our Principal Sir, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar and our Chairperson, Smt.
