

International Workshop: Lessons for skill development – European perspective

The Centre for skill development, SLC in collaboration with Innovation council organized an International Workshop on "Lessons for Skill Development: European Perspective" on 8th January, 2020 at SLC Board room. The resource person for the workshop was Prof. Slagjana Stojanovska, Integrated Business Faculty, University of Ljubljana, Macedonia. The event started with auspicious lamp lighting by the guest of honor, principal sir and the fellow faculty of the college. Dr. Rabi Narayan Kar, principal SLC addressed the gathering with his words of wisdom and presented a token of gratitude to the guest of honor. Dr. Kavita Arora, convenor, CSD felicitated principal sir.

Then Prof. Slagjana Stojanovska started with her talk about the European model of skill development. She talked about her vast experience in the field of industry and academics specializing in marketing management strategies, project management. Then she discussed about the startup culture in her university and how a business student their needs to float their company and liquidate the same which gives them practical experience about a company formation. The workshop had a rich inquisitive discussion with Prof. Slagjana Stojanovska, faculty members and students got to learn a lot from the guest speaker.

The session ended with a quick question- answer round from students and the faculty. Dr. Kavita Arora, Convenor, CSD presented the final vote of thanks to conclude the workshop. The workshop was attended by 47 students.

