Report on

“Orientation Session”

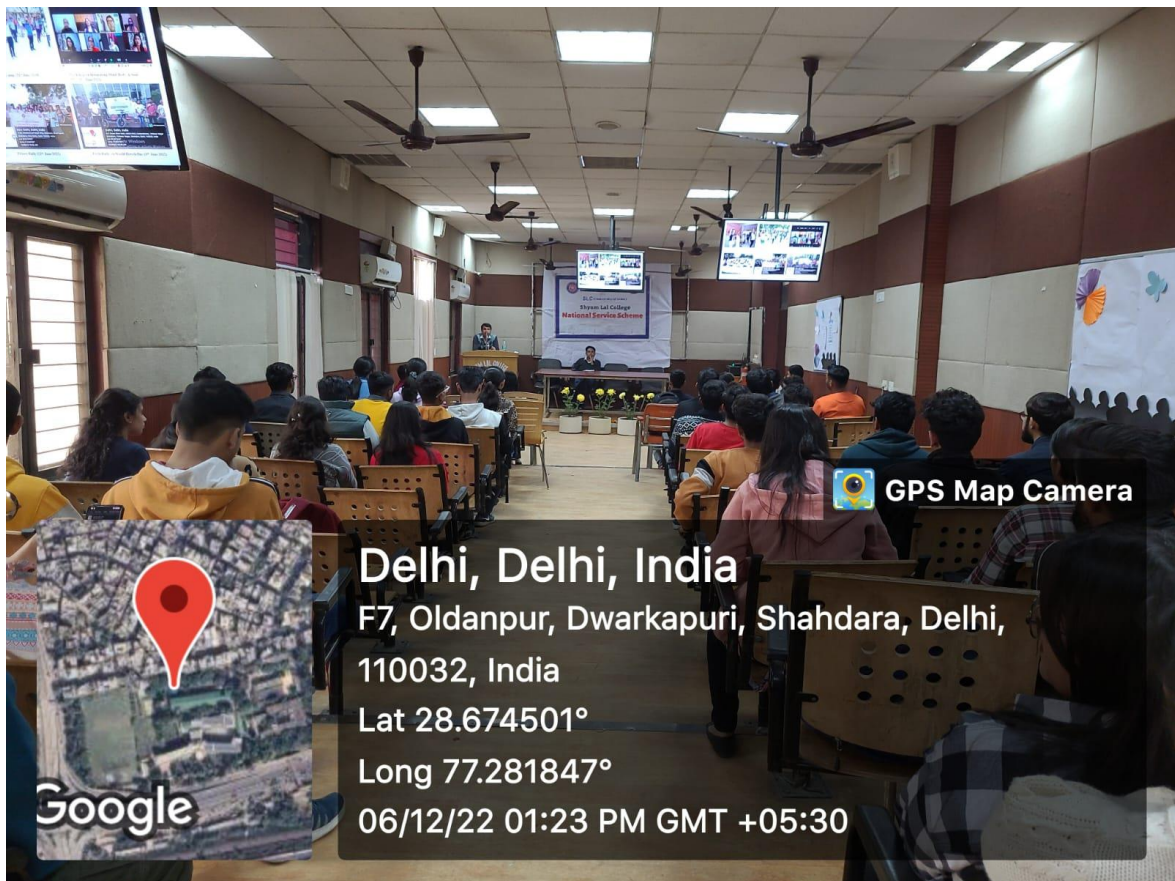

6th December, 2022

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Shyam Lal College (M), University of Delhi organised an orientation session for newly enrolled first-year students on 6th December 2022 at 12:30 pm in the seminar hall.

The session began with a formal welcome address given by Mr. Varun Panwar, Faculty Member, NSS, who gave a brief introduction about the NSS unit of SLC and also through light on the various events organised in previous session and their relevance. Mr. Panwar also explained about NSS structure, roles and responsibilities of volunteers, and motivated them to be proactive in understanding and addressing different social issues, which could be helpful for them in building their personality and contributing towards Viksit Bharat.

Dr. Prabhat Sharma, Programme Officer, NSS, discussed about the various structure, protocols and working mechanism of NSS. He focused on the major purpose of the NSS and how it helps students to upgrade their social skills, which are essential for the holistic development of an individual. He also explained the importance of NSS in the New Education Policy.

The program successfully concluded with an interactive session in which Dr. Prabhat Sharma and Mr. Varun Panwar clarifies all the queries raised by the students. Mr. Panwar ended the programme with a formal vote of thanks. 34 students attended the orientation session.
