“Road Safety & Regulations”

Date: 13 July 2022

Time: 11:00 AM

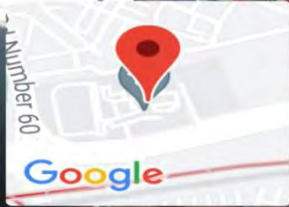

Venue: Room No.-10, College Campus

The National Services Scheme (NSS) of Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi organised a seminar on, “ROAD SAFETY & REGULATIONS” to spread awareness about road safety among students so that we can minimize the alarming number of road accidents.

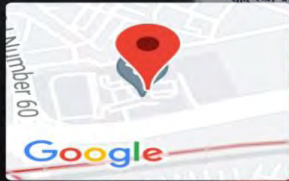

The seminar was started at 11 AM with an interactive session with faculty members including, Dr. Prabhat Sharma and Mr. Varun Panwar regarding Road Safety and Regulations.

More than 80 students attended the seminar. Sub-Inspector, Mr. Ramvir Sir, Sub-Inspector, Mr. Satyaveer Sir, ASI Mr. Ajay Kumar Tomar, ASI Mr. Vijay Pal Singh, Head Constable, Ms. Seema Mam and teachers were among the other dignitaries present in the seminar. These dignitaries had a few words with students in which they explained the importance of road safety and regulations in our life. Most of these accidents occur due to lack of awareness among people. As a responsible citizen of our country, we should never do rash driving, drive our vehicle beyond speed limit, always wear seat belts and helmets while driving. Due to such negligence we not only keeping our lives in danger but also providing threat to the life of other innocent people.

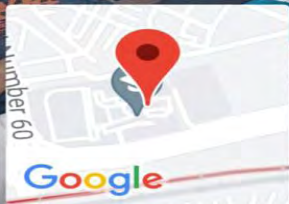

At the end, some questions were asked to student on traffic rules and for each right answer students were rewarded with a cap from these dignitaries. The aim of seminar was successfully achieved by NSS team of Shyam Lal College.
