

18th January 2017: Army Day Celebrations

Brief CV of the Key Speaker: Shri Shri Niwas is National Joint Organising Secretary (Delhi).

Summary of the Lecture: He reinforced the equality of girls in Indian society. He talked about the importance of armed forces in India and made the students realise that all of us are living such a comfortable life because of the hard lives lived by our Army. He mentioned about Havlidar Hangpan Dada who will be posthumously awarded Ashoka Chakra on 26th January, 2017. He very beautifully told the students with examples to understand the importance of Indian culture.

The event was attended by 46 students.

