

REPORT ON MOTIVATIONAL SESSION

HELD ON NOV 18, 2022

- BY INSTITUTION'S INNOVATION COUNCIL

IIC, in collaboration with IQAC of Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi, has organized a seminar, 'My Story – a Motivational Session' on November 18, 2022 from 11:00 a.m. onwards in Seminar Hall of the SLC Campus. Around 150 students have participated in this insightful event. The speaker of the session is a successful entrepreneur, Mr. Prafful Garg, with the host Dr. Monika Goyal, Convener of IIC. The objective of this event has been to encourage participant's enlightenment towards entrepreneurship and to develop skills adding value to their personality.

The session has been inaugurated by the Convenor, Dr. Monika Goyal, who honored the Chief Guest with a memento as a token of respect. After then, the session has been proceeded with the brainstorming words of the speaker Mr. Prafful Garg, also a founder of the Youth Community, YOUNITY. He has inspired the participants, through his story of life, to work for a better future, giving ideas on how to think and work hard to tackle the upcoming problems in their way to success. He has remarked all those things that make a struggle to the achievements a bit easy. His words of wisdom made the participants realized that being worried about getting the results, out of their hardwork, determines a stand in their life.

At the end of this inspirational seminar, Dr. Monika Goyal expressed her grateful thanks to the speaker, whose whole-hearted support has made this conference a reality. Thankfulness of this event also goes to the team members for their enormous cooperation.

