

NATIONAL WEBINAR & DEBATE COMPETITION (International Women's Day, 8th March,2021)

“There is no tool for development more effective than the empowerment of women.”

-Kofi Annan

A National Webinar & Debate Competition were organized by SLC under the aegis WDC and IQAC of SLC. The event celebrated the cause of women empowerment and was well organized and received on the occasion of International Women's Day, a day celebrated across the globe on 8th March every year. Keeping up with the cause of equal treatment of all and celebrating women and womanhood, the event deliberated on the topic “Professional Engagement for Women: A Way Forward.” The event started with a welcome address by Dr. Kusha Tiwari, Convenor, IQAC & WDC and our honorable Principal Sir, Prof. Dr. Rabi Narayan Kar. Nearly 300 participants attended this National Webinar & Debate Competition.

The event was scheduled in two parts. The event started with a virtual national level debate competition that saw the participation of ten teams from different parts of the country. The participants were enthusiastic to express their views on the topic “Is Women Empowerment a Myth in Developing Countries.” Dr. Kavita Arora, Department Of Commerce and Dr. Vivekanand Nartam, Department of Political Science, SLC were generous enough to judge the Competition and offered some useful insights to the participants and the audience.

The second instalment of the event witnessed the presence of some eminent personalities. The audience had a learned experience listening to Prof. Siddharth

Mishra from VIPS,IP University, Delhi, Ms. Alice Vaz R,IAS, Delhi and Prof. Sriparna Basu from FORE School of Management. All the eminent Speakers expressed their views on women empowerment and how it had become the need of the hour. The Speakers appreciated the efforts and vision of the College for taking up this cause. The entire session was well applauded by the audience as they raised their doubts and shared their experience of the webinar. The webinar concluded with a vote of thanks to the eminent speakers, our Principal for being so foreseeing and the WDC & IQAC for their efforts to make the event a huge success
