

AAKROSH- Street Play Society 2017-18

AAKROSH, the Street Play Society, performed and produced astronomically in the academic year 2017-18. The students participated in the University level competition, viz. MADARI, a popular acting/performing package under the supervision of famous film actor Shri Anupam Kher who along with Shri Manoj Tiwari, the famous Bhojpuri actor, mentored the whole event.

The members of Aakrosh team participated in Udaan, a national level street play competition in the month of February, 2018. One the team members Robert Messy won second runner-up position for performing in Aakrosh's annual production "KYA WOHI WO BHARAT HAI" at the competitive event Udaan.

In the month of March, 2018, Team Aakrosh participated in University of Delhi's inter-college Nukkad Natak competition organised by the Income Tax Department, Central Board of Direct Taxes, Government of India and bagged 2nd position. The Aakrosh is committed to perform more of such performances in the future.

In April, 2018, Aakrosh also performed in Shyam Lal College's Annual Prize Distribution ceremony in the presence of Dr. Mahesh Sharma, Member of Parliament and Minister of Culture, Govt of India. The team was excited to perform in front of esteemed personalities and received praises for their performances. The Principal, Dr. Rabi Narayan Kar not only applauded the students but also praised Dr. Supriti Mishra, the convenor, for managing the society effectively.
