SAMAJ- EK KHEL

"SAMAJ-EK KHEL" - our annual production is the story of two helpless women, Zeenat and Chandani. The play highlights the difficulties they face as they try to rebuild their lives from scratch. It is a progressive play that highlights child rape, women's desires, and the constant judgement they face from society. This story gives a strong message to rectify the obnoxious mindset of society towards women and urges society to accept them as an integral part.

"Samaj-Ek Khel' was well written by the Vice President of Jharokha, Mr. Yash Shukla, and directed by our President, Ms. Aditi Singh. The play was accompanied by significant music and well-timed lighting. It was appreciated by the audience and the faculty members, who applauded Team Jharokha for their efforts. The performance ended with the team giving a vote of thanks to the audience for their applause and compliments on the storyline as well.
