

LIGHTS! CAMERA! ACTION!
Take 4. Cinephoria 2017-18

CINEPHORIA: The SLC Film Club (conceived in the year 2012) is reeled back again, this year with greater zest and motives to work for our dear movie buffs and create more. The aim to enhance the 'real value' of Pure Cinema and to coil in more "Cinema-lovers" has somewhat stirred our society members to put their best foot forward. Thus, for a new beginning and running towards the dawn of this working year, we brought to the audience two of the Masterpieces made on the 70mm screen:

1. François Truffaut's 400 BLOWS:

A film about Antoine Doinel, a misunderstood adolescent in Paris who is thought by his parents and teachers to be a troublemaker. A 1959 French Melodrama, which brings out the characteristic traits of the movement, French New Wave.

2. John Moore's THE OMEN:

A 2006 remake of Richard Donner's 'The Omen'. Robert Thorn, an American diplomat adopts an orphaned newborn, keeping it a secret from his wife, names him Damien and both of them, raise him to further know the deeper, hidden, supernatural secrets about their son that will haunt their lives for then and forever.

3. Richard Attenborough's GANDHI:

Ben Kingsley as our Father of the Nation gave his lifetime performance in this remarkably portrayed historical movie that rejuvenated patriotic feelings.

Alongside the screening of Gandhi, Cinephoria also organized a collage-making event as well titled CINE-SANGREH: A Collage-making competition, where participants compiled caricatures, dialogues, images, newspaper cuttings etc. on a canvas to make their collages on the given theme of "100 YEARS OF INDIAN CINEMA". The event was really successful with a discussion followed afterwards on the given theme as well as on Gandhi, which was screened later.

This academic year turned some stones for Cinephoria as a number of participants and film enthusiasts continued to grow. The club made a plan for the next academic session with more films, more events and more exciting Cinema-related activities.
