Report/Brief Description:

FPCS- Fine Arts, Photography and Cultural Society of Shyam Lal College(M), University of Delhi, took part in the Yamuna Festival 2021, organized by the college in collaboration with Fine Arts Committee, the IQAC & NSS on the 5th and 6th of March 2021. The event began with the warm and motivating words of our Principal Sir Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, followed by M. Abbasuddin Tapadar, Convener of Fine Arts Society and Ms Shivali Kharbanda, Convener of Yamuna Festival Committee. The society carried out the task of decorating and beautifying the college for the event, with colourful paper flowers, rows of tassels of the different shades of blue decorated along the path welcoming the audience, creating an ambience for a funfilled. Photo-booths were sprinkled across the ambience and humorous as well as pretty props were created for the people to capture snaps of the day and amazing memories with their friends. The Lucifer wings became a prime hot spot for clicking pictures and letting their inner model out.

The society also showcased the talents of their members, both artists and photographers by organizing an exhibition, showcasing the brilliant and astute work of the members. Chitrakarita, the art exhibition and The Photographer's Eye, the photography exhibition was organized. This also gave the first-year students of the society to showcase their talents to the guests and get a chance in the spotlight.

FPCS also conducted competitions, both offline and online, keeping the COVID 19 protocol in mind. An Online Photography Competition named Snapshots and an on-the-spot LIVE Canvas Painting competition named Canva Live was organized, with students from different colleges of the University of Delhi participating in full zeal. Amazing entries for the photo remarkable competition were received, and amazing canvas paintings were also made by the participants. The winners went home with exciting prizes. Moreover, A wall of thought was also made for the students as well as other members of the audience to write their thoughts down on the theme of the event, as well as to give any necessary feedback. All in all, a wonderful event was successfully organized by the college, and FPCS feels proud to have been a part of this event and wishes to see more and be a part of more such festivals and events with zeal and excitement.
