For students, it was a great way to understand the rich heritage of India in art. Along with enthusiasm and fun for the activities, qualities like sensitivity, creativity and togetherness were also inculcated in the students. Such festivals are attractive for students of all ages and foster humanism, patriotism, and family values. Moreover, art festivals have a positive effect on personality development and improve empathy.

The society carried out the task of decorating and beautifying the college for the event, with colourful paper flowers, rose of tassels of the different shades of blue, decorated along the path welcoming the audience, creating an ambience for a fun filled. Photo booth were sprinkled across the ambience and humorous as well as pretty props were created for the people to capture snaps of the day and amazing memories with their friends. The lucifer wings became a prime hotspot for clicking pictures and letting their inner model out.

Students from the different colleges of the university of Delhi participated in full zeal. Amazing entries for remarkable competitions were received and the winners went home with exciting prizes.
