REPORT

EXTEMPORANEOUS 2022

Sheershasth: The Bilingual Debating Society of SLC(M) organised an inter college bilingual extempore competition by the name of EXTEMPORANEOUS on the 15th of November 2022 in the Seminar Hall of the New Building at Shyam Lal College's Campus.

Mrs. Jaya Kakkar , Mr. Akhil Tulsidas and Mr. Shivam Shandilya were the Esteemed members of the Judging panel for the competition. Their Experience and in depth knowledge of not only the format of debating but also the various topics released under it were well appreciated and were clearly projected through their judgments and guidance on the day.

The Event began around 10 AM and participants engaged in lively and vibrant discourse on a barrage of topics which were made known to them only a few minutes before their turn in accordance with the rules of procedures of the format of debate. It was a one day event and the results were declared on the same day by the panel in the presence of all the participants , the winners were announced in three categories -

Best Speaker- Ms. Kanishka Sharma , Shivaji College.

First runner up- Mr. Mansvi Bangarh , Ram Lal Anand College.

Second runner up - Ms. Snehil Smriti , Jesus and Mary College.

Sheershasth's Convenor Mr. Nishant Kumar Singh was present to Felicitate the winners and awarded them with Trophies and Certificates for their Achievement.

The society collaborated with DELHI UNIVERSITY OFFICIAL , DU CLUB & COMPETITIONS GENERATOR as the event's Media Partner for the purpose of the promotion of EXTEMPORENEOUS on social media (Instagram)

The Event was a huge success and witnessed enthusiastic participation from students and debaters across the Delhi Debating Circuit.
