

SLC(University of Delhi) National Service Scheme Report on

"NSS Volunteers of Shyam Lal College Participate in Independence Day Celebrations at Red Fort"

Date:- 1st-15th August, 2024 Time:- 5:30AM-11:00AM

Participants: - 8

On August 15, 2024, Shyam Lal College celebrated a proud moment as eight NSS volunteers participated in the "My Bharat Logo Human Chain" formation at Gyan Path, Red Fort, New Delhi. The selected volunteers—Nikita, Khushi Sharma, Praneeta Raj Singh, Jatin Bansal, Rishabh Sharma, Chetna Bhardwaj, Gaurav Baghel, and Kumari Abhilasha—represented the college with great honor in this prestigious event.

Their journey began on August 1st, with a rigorous 13-day rehearsal schedule from 5:30 AM to 11:00 AM daily. These sessions were intense and instrumental in building a strong sense of determination, discipline, and unity among the participants. The management arranged transportation to the venue and provided two rounds of refreshments each day to support the volunteers during their rigorous practice.

The volunteers also engaged in several interactive sessions, enhancing their commitment to the event. On August 12th, they were provided with dedicated uniforms, including t-shirts, lowers, shoes, socks, and caps, symbolizing their unified representation.

On August 13th, the volunteers had the opportunity to witness an award distribution ceremony attended by Minister of State for Defence Shri. Sanjay Seth and Smt. Vanita Sood, Director of NSS. Although they did not receive awards, the ceremony was a significant moment of recognition and inspiration.

The culmination of their efforts occurred on Independence Day, where they took part in the Flag Hoisting Ceremony at Red Fort, conducted by the Prime Minister. This moment of immense pride was followed by witnessing the grand national parade and an interactive session with the Prime Minister. His speech on 'Viksit Bharat 2047,' India's achievements in the Olympics, and other national milestones filled the volunteers with a deep sense of pride and positive energy.

This experience was more than participation in a national event; it was a profound journey of personal and collective achievement. The eight NSS volunteers from Shyam Lal College will forever cherish this event as a defining moment in their lives, reflecting their dedication to the nation and its values.

