

SLC(University of Delhi) National Service Scheme Report on "Plantation Drive"

Date:- 13th–14th August, 2024

Time:- 12:00 PM

Venue:- College Ground

Participants:- 35

On August 13th and 14th, the NSS Unit of Shyam Lal College organized a meaningful Plantation Drive to honor the spirit of Independence Day. The event, themed "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam", was aimed at fostering a sense of patriotism and gratitude toward our motherland. A total of 35 participants, including Principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, NSS Program Officer Dr. Swati Yadav, staff members, and volunteers, took part in this initiative.

The drive involved the planting of saplings with the collective goal of contributing to a greener and healthier environment. The slogan "Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam" echoed throughout the event, symbolizing the deep respect and commitment to both Mother Nature and Our Nation.

This plantation drive not only served as a tribute to the nation during the Independence Day celebrations but also reinforced the importance of environmental conservation. The event concluded with a renewed sense of responsibility and patriotism among the participants, highlighting the significance of such initiatives in nurturing both the land and the spirit of our country.
