

National Paper Presentation Competition

On April 8th, 2022, the Center for Skill Development (CSD) and IQAC, Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi organized a National Paper Presentation Competition on the topic “SKILL DEVELOPMENT AND ATMA NIRBHAR BHARAT”. The goal of this competition was to promote research ethics among the youth and to provide them with a platform to submit and present their findings.

The session was started by Dr. Kavita Arora, Convenor, CSD, SLC, by thanking Professor Rabi Narayan Kar, Principal, Shyam Lal College, for providing the amazing chance to host this competition at the national level, and invited them to say a few words. Professor Rabi Narayan kar began by addressing everyone with a warm welcome, and then went on to discuss how such competitions allows students to learn, grow and turn into several versions of future researchers in new ways. He also encouraged students to continue doing good regardless of the circumstances. IQAC coordinator Dr. Kusha Tiwari discussed the incredible learning experience that such insightful events provide and also the possibilities of having it offline.

Under the competition entries were Invited from all UG and PG students across the Nation and almost 50 participants registered. Further Competition began with all of the shortlisted paper presenters who participated enthusiastically in this and displayed their abilities magnificently. All competitors who took part in the competition demonstrated their passion and commitment to the task at hand. Furthermore, the judges paid close attention and care to each and every participant, marking them appropriately based on their performance.

The session came to an end by a positive end note by the jury members which inspired all competitors to keep moving without being disheartened as failure is the leading step toward success. After the splendid interactive session Dr. Kavita Arora delivered a vote of thanks to the jury, Participants and the organizing team for making this a great success.
