In collaboration with
Department of Environment, Government of NCT, Delhi

The Eco-Club (the_ Last _Leaf) of Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi, in collaboration with the Department of Environment, NCT of Delhi, organized an eco-friendly initiative titled "Holi Goes Green: The Natural Colour Project" from 1st to 10th March 2025. 15 volunteers actively participated in the campaign. The program aimed to raise awareness about the harmful effects of chemical colours on health and the environment, while promoting the use of natural, eco-friendly alternatives. As part of the initiative, Eco-Club members prepared herbal colours using turmeric, beetroot, marigold, henna leaves and sandal wood sending a strong message on the importance of sustainable and eco-conscious festivities. The initiative successfully engaged students and spread the message that celebrations can be joyful and environmentally responsible, reflecting the Eco-Club's commitment to promoting ecological responsibility through cultural traditions.
