In collaboration with

Department of Environment, Government of NCT, Delhi

The East Delhi Pushpamohatsav (Umang 7.0) 2025, a vibrant celebration of flowers, sustainability, and handlooms, was held on the sprawling campus of Shyam Lal College (University of Delhi). This year's event marked the seventh consecutive year of this initiative, organized under the guidance of Principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar. The event was graced by the presence of Prof. Tulsian, a member of the Governing Body, SLC, as the guest of honour. Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, along with faculty members of the Garden Committee, Eco Club, and IQAC Director Prof. Kusha Tiwari, welcomed the guest and showcased the flowers on display. The event featured over 100 varieties of flowers, attracting more than 150 students and 50 faculty members. With a focus on tulips and promoting handlooms, the event saw participation from several Nurseries, including Rajesh Nursery, Shyam Bihari Nursery, Afroj Nursery, Sheeshpal Nursery and Ajay Nursery which showcased their diverse range of flowers. Additionally, handloom shops such as Tip Top Handlooms, Sumangalam and Radhika handloom displayed hand-woven cloths and eco-friendly products. The SLC Eco-Club Volunteers also set up stalls, introducing organic and eco-friendly lifestyle products, including "best out of waste" products, as part of the college's on-going efforts to promote sustainable practices.
