Gandhi Study Circle (2023-24)

Event: Webinar on “Relevance of Mahatma Gandhi's thoughts in Present Time”

Date: 2nd October, 2023

The GSC organised a national webinar with the topic "Relevance of Mahatma Gandhi's Thoughts in Present Time" on October 2, 2023, an auspicious day. Professor Shyamrao Koreti, the esteemed Dean of Social Sciences at Nagpur University, led this insightful discussion. His insightful analysis explored the rich legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and clarified the principles and goals that still hold true in today's world.

The webinar functioned as a forum for lively discussion between instructors and students, providing a heated exchange of ideas. The guests considered Professor Koreti's explanation to be quite insightful, as it shed light on the lessons Gandhi taught and their profound relevance—especially for today's young. There was a lively discussion during the class, and the students' insightful questions added even more depth to the conversation.

There was a good turnout for the event, with about 80 students and teachers participating in the lively discussion. In addition to summarizing Gandhi's revolutionary efforts, Professor Koreti's academic speech emphasised how important it is for today's youth to absorb his values of truth, non-violence, and social justice.
