Centre: VIMARSH (The Reading Club), Sarasvati IKS Centre

Convenor: Dr. Seema Guglani

Venue: Innovation Plaza 2

Collaborations: IQAC

No. of Student Participants: 60

The film screening of Swatantrya Veer Savarkar, organized by VIMARSH (The Reading Club) under the Sarasvati IKS Centre, in collaboration with IQAC, was held on 10th September 2024. The aim of the screening was to immerse students in the inspiring life and legacy of Veer Savarkar, an iconic figure in India's struggle for independence.

The event was inaugurated by Principal Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, who opened the session by cutting the ribbon and delivering a motivational speech. In his address, Prof. Kar emphasized the importance of such events in educational institutions, stressing that students must engage with the nation's history to develop a deeper sense of responsibility as future leaders. He encouraged students to use platforms like VIMARSH to broaden their knowledge and hone their research skills.

Dr. Seema Guglani, convenor of VIMARSH (The Reading Club), highlighted the pivotal role played by the club in creating awareness about India's rich historical heritage. She emphasized how historical knowledge enriches understanding of current affairs and contributes to the holistic development of students. Dr. Guglani also spoke about the unique contributions of historians to the nation's independence, which was mirrored in the selection of Swatantrya Veer Savarkar for the screening.

The film, which portrayed Veer Savarkar's revolutionary activities, his philosophical beliefs, and his sacrifices for India's freedom, captivated the audience for the entire duration of 2 hours and 50 minutes. The screening offered a comprehensive view of his journey and contributions to India's freedom movement.

Following the screening, there was a brief but lively interaction session where students shared their reflections on the themes and historical significance of the film. Many students expressed a newfound admiration for Veer Savarkar's courage and intellectual depth. The discussion provided an opportunity for critical engagement, reinforcing the educational impact of the event.

The screening was a resounding success, achieving its goal of educating students about one of India's lesser-known freedom fighters and sparking a conversation about his lasting legacy.
