

Inter-College Speech Competition on “Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility”

Date: 31 October 2025

Centre: Vimarsh (The Reading Club), Sarasvati IKS Centre

Convenor: Dr. Seema Guglani

Venue: Board Room, Shyam Lal College

Collaborations: IQAC & SAIL

No. of Student Participants: 50

To commemorate Vigilance Awareness Week 2025 (October 27 - November 2) and the 150th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Vimarsh (The Reading Club) under the Sarasvati Indian Knowledge System (IKS) Centre, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and the Steel Authority of India Limited (SAIL), organized an Inter-College Speech Competition on “Vigilance: Our Shared Responsibility” on 31 October 2025.

The programme commenced with a lamp-lighting ceremony accompanied by Saraswati Vandana, followed by the University Kulgeet. Floral tributes were offered to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. Shri Kanahiya Lal Yadav, Station House Officer, Shahdara Police Station (Chief Guest), and Shri Satyabrata Kar, Chief General Manager (Vigilance), SAIL, were felicitated by the college fraternity. Dr. Seema Guglani, Convenor of Vimarsh, welcomed the dignitaries and participants, outlining the objectives of the event and the contemporary relevance of the theme.

In the inaugural address, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar, Principal of Shyam Lal College, emphasized that the institution has always promoted education rooted in ethics, civic consciousness, and national values. He appreciated the collaboration with SAIL for inspiring youth to practice honesty and integrity in every sphere of life.

Prof. Kusha Tiwari, Director of IQAC and the Sarasvati IKS Centre, underlined that vigilance begins with self-awareness and a sense of moral duty. She encouraged students to transform ethical reflection into everyday action, thereby strengthening the culture of accountability.

Shri Satyabrata Kar, delivered an insightful address on “Integrity and Vigilance as Pillars of Good Governance.” He emphasized the importance of transparency, discipline, and moral courage in both professional and personal life, urging students to become ethical leaders contributing to a corruption-free India.

Shri Kanahiya Lal Yadav, Chief Guest of the programme, commended the college for engaging students in meaningful initiatives that promote awareness, social responsibility, and active citizenship. He lauded the efforts of faculty and organizers for instilling the values of vigilance and honesty among youth.

The speech competition witnessed enthusiastic participation from students representing various colleges of the University of Delhi. Participants delivered impressive speeches in Hindi and English on the importance of vigilance, accountability, and ethical governance. Dr. Kaushiki and Shri Satyabrata Kar served as the judges for the competition, evaluating the participants on content, delivery, and articulation. Midway through the event, attendees joined a Plantation Drive in the college gardens and viewed a Nukkad Natak at the amphitheatre, both reinforcing the ideals of social and environmental responsibility.

Following the presentations, the judges declared the results:
