Seminar on "Entrepreneurial Leadership"

On 11th January 2020, The Department of Commerce organized a seminar on "Entrepreneurial Leadership". The seminar was embarked by Professor Slagjana Stojanovska, Professor R. K. Singh and Professor Ari Lindeman, conveying their opinions regarding the essence of Entrepreneurial Leadership. Their views and thoughts evolved around the techniques of organizing and motivating a group of people to achieve a common objective. Sessions were conducted under the able guidance of our visionary principal sir, Prof. Rabi Narayan Kar. Each of the Sessions was initiated by convener –Shri Vinod Nehra along with the designated session coordinators. The Sessions were conducted in physical mode. The participants were given a brief introduction to the topic, and after that, the learned speakers addressed participants in detail.

In this seminar, Professor Singh talked about leadership traits, emphasizing that a successful leader will always have one eye looking towards the future, if not both eyes. They think several steps ahead on every problem and always look for new growth opportunities.

Professor Stojanovska and Prof. Lindeman also shared their views on Entrepreneurial leadership as "organizing a group of people to achieve a common goal using proactive entrepreneurial behaviour by optimizing risk, innovating to take advantage of opportunities, taking personal responsibility and managing change within a dynamic environment for the benefit of an organization".

Such leadership aims to cultivate entrepreneurial individuals and teams that fully leverage their creative potential in creating value for an organization. Entrepreneurial leadership does this by employing leadership practices that "develop the ability in employees to self-generate, self-reflect, and self-correct in their workplace". Also gave some examples of successful stories like:

Anand Mahindra, Director of Mahindra & Mahindra, Business.

Radhakishan Damani – Founder of "D-Mart", the mega-retail chain stores.

Gautam Adani – CEO of Adani Group, A man who dreamt big and made it a reality.

Hari Menon, Big Basket CEO & Co-Founder.

The sessions were attended by all faculty members of the Department of Commerce along with 89 students. In the end, the convener closed it with concluding remarks and a vote of thanks to the Speaker.
