

SEMINAR REPORT

GST, Budget & Reforms 2026: Strengthening India's Tax Framework for a Viksit Bharat

Speaker of the Session: CA Radhika Singhal

Date & Venue: 17th February, Seminar Hall, Shyam Lal College

Number of Participants: 100 Student Participants & Faculty Members

COMMBLAZE – The Commerce Association of Shyam Lal College organized a seminar on the topic “GST, Budget & Reforms 2026: Strengthening India's Tax Framework for a Viksit Bharat” under the guidance of Triveni Ma'am, Teacher-in-Charge of Commbلاze, and Shraddha Ma'am, Convener of the Commerce Association.

The principal objective of the seminar was to provide students with practical insights into the latest GST budget provisions, recent reforms, and their impact on businesses and the Indian economy. The seminar aimed to bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and real-world application of taxation concepts.

The event commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the esteemed guest and faculty members. The lamp-lighting ceremony was beautifully accompanied by a soothing flute performance by Prince, adding grace and positivity to the atmosphere. This was later accompanied by Saraswati Vandana performed by Bhumi invoking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati. The University Kulgeet was also sung, filling the hall with pride and unity.

Following the formal inauguration, the keynote speaker, CA Radhika Singhal, was introduced and warmly welcomed with a round of applause. With over 13 years of professional experience in GST, audit, and indirect taxation, she shared her expert insights on the recent GST reforms announced in the 2026 Budget.

During her session, she discussed the significance of GST in strengthening India's tax structure and highlighted how reforms are contributing towards the vision of Viksit Bharat 2047. She explained key updates in a simple and practical manner, making it easier for students to understand complex taxation concepts. The speaker also shared real-life examples from her professional experience, which helped students connect classroom learning with real-world business scenarios.

An interactive Question-and-Answer session was conducted at the end of the seminar, where students actively participated and clarified their doubts regarding GST reforms and career opportunities in taxation. The interaction was engaging and insightful, reflecting the keen interest of the participants.

The seminar concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks, expressing heartfelt gratitude to CA Radhika Singhal for her valuable guidance and for sharing her expertise with the students. Special appreciation was extended to Triveni Ma'am and Shraddha Ma'am for their constant support and leadership. The organizing team of Commblaze was also acknowledged for their dedication and efforts in successfully conducting the event.

The seminar ended on a respectful note with the National Anthem.

Overall, the seminar was highly informative, interactive, and successful, with the enthusiastic participation of 100 students. The session significantly enhanced students' understanding of GST reforms and inspired many to explore career opportunities in the field of taxation
