Date & Venue: 3rd March 2025, Board Room(SLC)

COMMBLAZE – The Commerce Association of Shyam Lal College (University of Delhi) hosted its annual event, “ELFESTO'25”, featuring the much-anticipated BidBazaar 2.0 – a high-stakes strategic bidding competition that put participants’ decision-making, analytical skills, and financial acumen to the test

The competition unfolded in two challenging rounds. In the first round, participants had to prove their individual business and negotiation skills to qualify for the next stage. Those who successfully advanced were then divided into teams for the final round.

In the second round, teams were given the exciting opportunity to strategically bid on players, form well-balanced squads, and carefully appoint their captain and vice-captain. The competition tested not just financial foresight but also teamwork, leadership, and game strategy. Each player’s value and potential were assessed meticulously, making the bidding process an intense and dynamic experience.

As the game progressed, teams engaged in calculated decision-making to assemble the strongest lineup. The team that accumulated the highest number of points emerged as the ultimate winner.

Entries were judged on strategy, bidding tactics, decision-making skills, and overall team formation. The participants showcased exceptional business insight and game theory applications, impressing the judges with their strategic thinking.

Judges:

- Ms. Palak Kakkar
- Dr. Megha Jain
- Dr. Gurmeet Singh
- Mr. Yogesh

No. of Participants: 18

After a thrilling contest, the winners were declared:

1st Place – Ashish Kumar

2nd Place – Raghav Singh

3rd Place – Kartik Tomar

The winners were awarded by the esteemed judges, while all participants received certificates of recognition of their efforts and strategic prowess.

BidBazaar 2.0 was a resounding success, proving to be both an intellectually stimulating and exhilarating experience. The event reinforced the importance of financial literacy, strategic planning, and competitive decision-making in a real-world simulation.

COMMBLAZE remains committed to organizing more engaging and thought-provoking events that blend competition with learning, ensuring students develop the skills needed to excel in an increasingly competitive world.
