INTRODUCTION

The College has established the Enabling Unit (EU) and the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) as it understands the needs of its special students as well as to students belonging to communities that have been historically denied various opportunities.

Enabling Unit (EU) and the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) organized SAMARTHYA under which various activities took place from which Essay Writing Competition was part of it. It helps students to improve their writing skills which increases their knowledge and also improves vocabulary and language.

OPENING AND COMMENCEMENT

The event began with a warm welcome extended to all the participants and attendees. Students from various colleges and universities gathered in Room number 108 eagerly waiting for their turn to express their thinking on paper. The Judges addressed the gathering and highlighted the rules of the competition and also importance of vocabulary and writing skills.

Judges: Dr. Ankit Mittal and Dr. Lakshmi Vishvnoi

ESSAY WRITING SESSION

The participants were allotted a time of 1 hour to write the essay and to stick to the topic. The session was well-organized, and students actively participated with enthusiasm. It was conducted in a quiet and disciplined environment, allowing students to focus on their writing. Students carefully analyzed the given topics before beginning their essays, created rough outlines, and then presented their thoughts in a structured manner.

CLOSING CEREMONY

After an exciting hour of essay writing, the top three students were announced as winners of the competition. The winners were felicitated with certificates and medals for appreciation by the faculty members. The event concluded on a high note with words of encouragement and motivation for all participants. The judges congratulated the students for their critical and writing thinking and encouraged them to keep up the spirit in future endeavors.

LIST OF WINNERS

1st Position – Om Dwivedi, Shyam Lal College, DU

2nd Position – Like Ulla Ansari, Shyam Lal College, DU

3rd Position – Muskan Savita, Shyam Lal College, DU

CONCLUSION

The Essay Writing Competition proved to be a successful event under SAMARTHYA'26. It highlighted the critical and writing skills of students. Such events not only encourage critical thinking but also instill confidence to the students to express their thoughts in a piece of paper.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to all faculty members, judges, participants, and volunteers who contributed to the successful execution of the Essay Writing Competition. Special thanks to the Enabling Unit and the Equal Opportunity Cell and SAMARTHYA'26 for giving the stage for all the young minds to prove themselves.
