A detailed description of the event: Jharokha performed its self-written skit ‘Apna Sapna Money Money – A Skit on Entrepreneurship’ under ‘Anvesha – The Annual Event of Enactus’ in the Flag Ground on 29th February 2024. The story revolves around a young girl who aspired to be an entrepreneur but soon realizes that it's not what it's seems like. The girl got inspired from a television show and decided to open a startup of her own but soon realized that there will be many obstacles and problems along the way that she wasn't prepared for. Eventually, this made her realize that entrepreneurship is not a joke which could be pursued easily and need a proper thought behind it. We would like to express our gratitude towards Enactus for giving us this valuable opportunity. We are grateful towards our team as it was the result of their hard work that we were able to made this skit in a record time and performed it on the stage successfully.
