Performers Kanishk and Aadya captivated the audience with a Shiv Stuti, a classical invocation paying tribute to Lord Shiva through dynamic rhythm and spiritual expression. The performance beautifully combined strength and grace, capturing the divine essence of Tandava with controlled yet energetic footwork and evocative abhinaya.

The duo's synchrony and emotive storytelling were widely appreciated by the audience, marking Aarodhya's strong presence on an external cultural stage. Their performance added a divine and meditative aura to the event, earning praise from both peers and faculty.
