A seminar on CAT /GMAT/GRE preparation

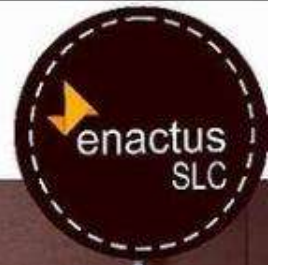

Date :17th Sep 2018

Enactus SLC, in collaboration with IMS, organized a seminar on CAT /GMAT/GRE preparation and various other career options was organized on 17th September 2018. It was an opportunity that helped students to evaluate themselves through a one-hour examination within the college premises itself. No registration fee was collected from students; it was an opportunity for all the students irrespective of the course and year. The best scorers were rewarded with scholarships in addition to discount vouchers from IMS.

Different career options and various opportunities were discussed by the mentor, Mr. Mayank Kumar, during the session. He explicitly approached the questions regarding knowledge and guidance to make up to the best institutes in the country. His graciously donated time, elegance, and guidance created an incredible seminar. The event turned up to be a great success, and team Enactus SLC was praised by both students and faculty of the college for arranging such an informational event.
