Career Launcher Report 2022-2023

Enactus SLC orchestrated a specialized seminar in collaboration with Career Launcher, aimed at providing comprehensive guidance to students embarking on their MBA preparation journey. The event, held on March 21st, served as a beacon of support for students navigating the complexities of MBA entrance exams.

The seminar's agenda encompassed a wide array of topics crucial to MBA aspirants, including effective exam strategies, adept time management techniques, and the intricate nuances of the application process. Attendees, comprising a diverse cohort of students with aspirations for MBA programs, were equipped with invaluable insights and practical advice to enhance their preparation efforts.

The partnership with Career Launcher, a venerable institution renowned for its excellence in education and test preparation, added significant gravitas to the seminar. Leveraging the expertise and resources of Career Launcher ensured that attendees received top-tier guidance and support tailored to their MBA aspirations.

The seminar garnered substantial interest, drawing an impressive turnout of approximately 80-100 students. The presence of Mr. Navneet Anand, a distinguished speaker renowned for his expertise in MBA preparation, further elevated the event's stature. Mr. Anand's insightful discourse and interactive sessions enriched the learning experience, empowering attendees with actionable strategies and knowledge to excel in their MBA pursuits.

Overall, the seminar served as a pivotal milestone in Enactus SLC's commitment to nurturing and empowering student talent, fostering academic excellence, and facilitating holistic development within the student community.
