

ANVESHA 2025 Report

ENACTUS Shyam Lal College Hosted ANVESHA 2025: A Celebration of Sustainability and Innovation

New Delhi, March 6, 2025 – Enactus Shyam Lal College (Morning) and Enactus Shyam Lal College (Evening) successfully concluded the second edition of ANVESHA, a two-day fest centered around sustainability, innovation, and entrepreneurial action. Held on March 5th and 6th, 2025, at Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi, the event brought together students, industry leaders, and sustainability enthusiasts to collaborate, compete, and celebrate impactful change.

Day 1: Innovation, Strategy, and Insightful Dialogues

The fest commenced with the inauguration and a ribbon-cutting ceremony led by Prof. Ravi Narayan Kar, Principal of Shyam Lal College (Morning), and Prof. Nachiketa Singh, Principal of Shyam Lal College (Evening). They were joined by Ms. Palak Kakkar- Enactus (Morning) Convenor and Prof. Aditya Tripathi- Enactus (Evening) Convenor, each of whom delivered an inspiring speech emphasizing the importance of youth-driven initiatives in shaping a sustainable future.

The first day kicked off with Bid Magnate, a high-stakes business strategy competition where participants engaged in bidding, trading, and developing sustainable business models. Simultaneously, Innowave, a case study competition, saw teams from various colleges presenting innovative solutions to real-world sustainability challenges. Both competitions progressed through rigorous rounds, with shortlisted teams advancing to the final stages on Day 2.

Day 2: Celebration, Creativity, and Culmination

The highlight of Day 2 was the Conclave, featuring a panel discussion with four distinguished leaders of sustainable startups who were also our honourable judges for the Day 1 competitions-

Manil Agarwal- Founder of Sustenable, Mriganka Saha- CEO of SuspacK Technologies, Vivek Vishal- marketing Head at Namo E Waste, Preet- Founder of Vriksha Veda.

The panelists shared their personal journeys, challenges, and groundbreaking innovations, inspiring students with their stories of resilience and creativity. The session concluded with an interactive Q&A, where students posed thoughtful questions and gained valuable insights into the world of sustainable entrepreneurship.

The final rounds of Bid Magnate and Innowave took place, with participants presenting their strategies and solutions to a panel of judges. The winning teams were awarded with prizes worth Rs. 1,60,000 including cash prizes and certificates, recognizing their innovation and strategic prowess.

Day 2 transformed the college campus into a vibrant hub of activity. Enactus stalls of various colleges like SGBT Khalsa, Ramjas, ANDC, etc., showcased flagship projects highlighting their community impact and sustainable practices. Food stalls, art installations, and accessory vendors added to the festive atmosphere, while fun activities like Life-Size Ludo, Squid Game, Sustainable Housie, and Battleground College Series kept the energy high.

After 4 PM, the fest culminated into a cultural extravaganza featuring electrifying musical performances by Kartavya Beniwal and Yash Soni followed by live concert featuring Ashish Shakya, Mehul Juyal, Karan Benny and Akash Barnabas—all who enthralled the audience with their music, bringing the event to a memorable close.

ANVESHA 2025 was more than just a fest; it was a movement toward a sustainable future. By fostering collaboration, innovation, and awareness, Enactus Shyam Lal College reaffirmed its commitment to empowering communities and driving meaningful changes. The event not only celebrated entrepreneurial spirit but also inspired attendees to take actionable steps toward a greener, more inclusive world.

Glimpse of the event:

