National Falcon Film Festival 6.0 at Shyam Lal College

Date: April 29, 2024

Venue: Shyam Lal College Campus

Introduction: The National Falcon Film Festival (NFFF) 6.0, organized by Falcon, the esteemed filmmaking society of Shyam Lal College, unfolded on April 29 at the college campus. This annual extravaganza was a joint effort, bringing together the creative forces of three prominent societies: Falcon, Qasida (the literary society), and FPCS (the photography society). The event aimed to provide a platform for budding filmmakers, writers, actors, and artists to showcase their talents and celebrate the art of storytelling through various mediums.

Number of Participants: 55

Event Highlights:

1. On-the-Spot Filmmaking – Drishya: Drishya challenged participants to unleash their creativity and filmmaking skills within a constrained timeframe. Teams were tasked with conceptualizing, shooting, and editing short films on the spot, showcasing their ability to think on their feet and deliver under pressure
2. Script Writing – Lekhak League: Lekhak League celebrated the art of storytelling through scriptwriting. Participants crafted compelling narratives, weaving intricate plots and memorable characters into their scripts. The competition served as a platform for aspiring writers to showcase their imagination and literary prowess.
3. Bollywood Rampwalk and Monoact Competition – Cine Hood: Cine Hood added a touch of glamour and drama to the festival with its Bollywood Rampwalk and Monoact Competition. Participants donned their best Bollywood-inspired attire and walked the ramp with style, accompanied by engaging monoacts that brought iconic characters to life on stage.

4. BGMI Tournament: In the realm of digital entertainment, gaming enthusiasts battled it out in a BGMI (Battlegrounds Mobile India) tournament. The virtual battlegrounds witnessed intense competition as players showcased their strategic prowess and teamwork in pursuit of victory.

5. Treasure Hunt – Unlock The Loot: Unlock The Loot added an element of adventure and mystery to the festival with its treasure hunt. Participants embarked on a thrilling journey, deciphering clues and solving riddles to uncover hidden treasures scattered across the college campus.
