WALL PAINTING

The Fine Arts, Photography and Culture Society of the College, added yet another feather to their wings with the wall painting organized at the North Campus, on the Gandhi Wall in October, 2018 to commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, Father of the Nation.

The prestigious art society of the college successfully completed the wall painting which took few days to finish. As responsible youth, the members of the FPCS took their responsibility of spreading a great message through the art of wall painting. A beautiful message was displayed on the topic- 'Non-violence is the weapon of the strong' showcasing all religions. The painting was inspired by Mahatma Gandhi's teaching and quotes. And yet another painting was drawn depicting the life and importance of Mahatma Gandhi who served as the greatest example in humility and service.

This wall painting was very well appreciated by the viewers and even captured a column in the newspaper. This was a remarkable day for the FPCS as their art was recognized all over India with the newspaper article. This was possible with the constant support of the Convener—Dr. Gayatri Chaturvedi and the talented and dedicated members of the society.
