Competitions:

Rangreet'24, hosted a series of captivating competitions that ignited the imagination of students and provided them with a platform to showcase their artistic prowess. Each competition was carefully designed to inspire participants to explore the theme of 'Flora and Fauna' while embracing the spontaneity of the present moment.

The first competition held by FPCS was On-the-Spot Photography Competition which invited participants to seize the fleeting essence of nature through their lenses. With the theme of 'Flora and Fauna' guiding their vision, the twist was to capture the true essence of surroundings rather than only flora and fauna. Contestants sought to encapsulate the beauty and diversity of the natural world in their snapshots. The winner was Rahul Kumar who fulfilled all the guidelines and merged them with his snapshots. From majestic landscapes to intricate close-ups of wildlife, the photographs captured by all the participants were the intricate tapestry of life with remarkable clarity and artistry.

In the realm of doodle art, the inaugural Sketch Zoo competition unleashed boundless creativity as participants wielded nothing but a pen and their imagination. Armed with sheer talent and an unwavering spirit of exploration, contestants played with sketch pens and colors to match the theme and show their talent.

Next up was Face Painting Competition transcended the boundaries of traditional canvas as participants unleashed their creativity on a living, breathing medium. With brushes in hand, contestants transformed faces into mesmerizing works of art, each stroke revealing a story waiting to be told.

In the Tote Bag Painting Competition, fashion met artistry as participants infused simple tote bags with vibrant colours and captivating designs. The competition showcased the transformative power of art, turning everyday objects into works of wearable art that celebrated the beauty of nature in all its forms.

Throughout the competitions, the exhibitions served as a testament to the talent, dedication, and passion of the participants. From breath taking photographs that captured fleeting moments in time to awe-inspiring doodles that ignited the imagination, each entry reflected the remarkable range of creativity and artistic flair on display. As viewers wandered through the exhibitions, they were enveloped in a world of beauty and wonder, where the vibrancy of the natural world was brought to life through the vision of the artists.
