The Fine Arts Committee successfully hosted Kavyotkarsh, an inter-college poetry competition, on 3rd April 2025. The event provided an inspiring platform for young poets from different colleges to showcase their talent, connect with like-minded individuals, and celebrate the power of poetic expression.

A total of 107 registrations were received, out of which 11 poets were shortlisted to perform in EUTOPIA – the English poetry intercollege competition. EUTOPIA featured expressive and evocative poetry performances. The participants mesmerized the audience with their originality, creativity, and thematic depth.

Winners of EUTOPIA:

1st Prize: Samriddhi Upadhyay – Shaheed Bhagat Singh College

2nd Prize: Somi – Shaheed Bhagat Singh College

3rd Prize: Gehna Gautam – Maharaja Agrasen Institute of Technology

Special Mentions

Shohel Ansari – PADAV College

Shreyas Tomar – Ajay Kumar Garg Engineering College

The event was further elevated by the enthusiastic participation of faculty members and students in the audience, whose presence made the sessions more interactive and engaging. Their active involvement added to the charm and energy of the performances.

The entire event was smoothly managed by the Poetry Section of the Fine Arts Committee, whose members demonstrated outstanding teamwork and planning. A dedicated team worked tirelessly behind the scenes, ensuring that every aspect of the event—from logistics to hospitality—was executed flawlessly.

Kavotkarsh - Eutopia concluded as a celebration of voices, verses, and vibrant minds. It left a memorable impact on all who were part of it, reinforcing the power of poetry in connecting hearts and sparking conversations.
